

Table of Contents

- 03 Newest titles
- 07 Picture Books
- 13 Early reader
- 25 Middle Grade
- 33 Non Fiction
- 35 Backlist

The Lantern Keepers: Oscar (Book One)

Written by Radostina Nikolova

Illustrated by Boyan Yordanov-Bosilek

Softback / 140 x 200 mm / 216 pages

Publication date: September 2025
ISBN: 978-619-7806-10-6
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Radostina Nikolova

Is one of Bulgaria's most beloved contemporary children's authors. Her books have been translated into multiple languages, and she is known for creating imaginative, multilayered worlds that inspire curiosity and reflection in young readers.

Boyan Yordanov-Bosilek

Is a Bulgarian illustrator celebrated for his dynamic, vivid, and emotionally rich style. His work blends modern, futuristic elements with a fairy-tale feel, bringing depth and atmosphere to every story.

Helps with

Inspires critical thinking and curiosity
Encourages readers to question, explore mysteries, and think for themselves.

Encourages teamwork and empathy
Shows how friends can work together and understand each other's feelings.

Introduces themes of truth and justice
Explores honesty, fairness, and the courage to uncover the real story.

Ideal for

9–14 years old

Young readers who enjoy adventure, mystery, and meaningful stories.

Onefire.Onemystery.Apackofpupsdeterminedto reveal what's hidden

The Lantern, an old building full of freedom and memories, goes up in flames. For a pack of clever pups, this sparks more than worry—it awakens curiosity. When their friend is suspected of causing the fire, they set out to uncover the hidden truth. Along the way, they discover strange objects, meet intriguing allies, and learn that bravery often means asking the right questions rather than fighting.

Black Sea

Written by Alexandra Georgieva

Scientific editor and author of the foreword: Nikola Kerekov

Illustrated and designed by Radimira Yordanova and Simeon Zhelev

Hardback / 240 x 290 mm / 80 pages

Publication date: May 2025
ISBN: 978-619-7241-85-3
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Alexandra Georgieva

A primary school teacher and children's author known for her warm and engaging voice. Alexandra brings science and nature closer to young readers with clarity, enthusiasm, and heart.

Radimira Yordanova

Typographer, graphic designer, and educator with a passion for letters and visual storytelling. She combines her love for design with illustration, bringing warmth and personality to every project.

Nikola Kerekov

Biologist and science communicator who makes complex topics accessible and sparks curiosity in young minds.

Simeon Zhelev

Graphic designer, calligrapher, and lecturer whose work blends typography, illustration, and bold visual expression. His background in graffiti and design adds a distinctive, playful energy to his art.

Helps with

Environmental awareness

Introduces children to the importance of preserving marine life and ecosystems.

Scientific literacy

Turns complex topics into accessible knowledge through engaging storytelling.

Sense of place and identity

Connects young readers with the nature and culture of the Black Sea region.

Curiosity and exploration

Encourages discovery through facts, history, and geography.

Ideal for

7-12 years old

Independent reading and classroom exploration.

STEM-focused and nature-based education.

Children curious about the world around them.

A fascinating journey into the unique ecosystem, history, and life of the Black Sea – designed especially for curious young minds

A fascinating guide for young explorers – from the Black Sea's origins to its future.

This richly illustrated book reveals how the sea was formed, its unique geography, and the diversity of its inhabitants – from tiny coastal creatures to large marine animals.

Children will travel along the coast, dive into the past of ancient cities, and discover natural wonders. The book also explores today's ecological challenges and inspires readers to protect this unique sea.

Shapes

Written by Slavi Stoev

Illustrated by Miglena Papazova

Hardback / 230x290 / 48 pages

Publication date: October 2024
ISBN: 978-619-7241-90-7
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Slavi Stoev

Psychologist, children's book author, and advocate for personal and social well-being. Twice featured in the White Ravens Catalog, he writes stories that nurture emotional intelligence in young readers. He is also the co-founder and host of the psychology podcast Natural Intelligence.

Miglena Papazova

Freelance artist known for her warm and engaging illustration style, with years of experience in graphic design and children's book illustration.

Helps with

Friendship and empathy

A celebration of connection and understanding.

Diversity and inclusion

Demonstrates that our differences make us stronger together.

Emotional intelligence

Encourages young readers to recognize and navigate emotions.

Ideal for

4-8 years old

Independent reading.

Shared family moments.

Learning about emotional intelligence and acceptance of differences.

A tale where shapes come together to teach us the beauty of diversity and friendship

The square Pico and the triangle Pooh meet by chance and discover how many fun and interesting things they can do together. However, their friendship is not well-received by their tribes, who only interact with their own kind. This leads them to new discoveries and adventures. Their encounter with the circle Lindy opens the door to a world where it doesn't matter what shape you are, but what games you know how to play.

I'm Lucky to have My Parents

Written by Radostina Nikolova

Illustrated by Yana Popova

Hardback / 250 x 250 mm / 40 pages

Publication date: March 2023

ISBN: 978-617-8076-16-0

WORLD RIGHTS EXCEPT USA, POLAND, UKRAINE

Radostina Nikolova

By Radostina Nikolova, award-winning children's author whose heartfelt stories nurture empathy and inspire young minds.

Yana Popova

Freelance artist and conceptual creator with a passion for children's book illustration. She has an extensive background in graphic design and blends traditional and digital techniques to create emotionally resonant artwork.

Helps with

Family dynamics and separation

Helps children navigate changes in their family structure with understanding and reassurance.

Communication and honesty

Encourages open conversations between children and parents, fostering trust and emotional security.

Emotional intelligence

Supports kids in recognizing, expressing, and managing their emotions in a healthy way.

Ideal for

4-8 years old

Independent reading.

Shared family moments.

Teaching kids about family changes and emotional resilience.

A heartwarming story about navigating family changes

Separation can be challenging for children, and parents don't always have the right tools to help them. This gentle story shows how honest communication, understanding, and love allow a child to feel safe, accepted, and happy even when family life changes. It highlights that children are not responsible for adult decisions and that a supportive environment helps them adapt to the "new normal" with confidence and joy.

Named after Grandma Vera

Written by Vyara Georgieva

Illustrated by Gabriela Petkova

Hardback / 250 x 250 mm / 40 pages

Publication date: November 2024
ISBN: 978-619-7241-89-1
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Vyara Georgieva

is a debut author, inspired by personal memories and emotions. After years working as a psychologist in HR, she returned to her childhood passions—writing, drawing, and dancing. Now, she works with children, finding magic in every day.

Gabriela Petkova

is a freelance artist—but above all, she is a full-time parent. The countless hours spent reading and exploring books with her children ignited her passion for illustrating for young readers.

Helps with

Family connections and bonding

Strengthens the relationship between children and their grandparents through shared experiences and love.

Celebrating life's little moments

Shows the beauty in everyday interactions and reminds readers to appreciate small joys.

Understanding the magic of everyday rituals

Highlights how simple traditions and routines can create lasting memories and deepen family bonds.

Ideal for

3-7 years old

Shared reading with family.

Learning about love, memory, and the importance of small moments.

A touching story about the bond between a grandmother and her granddaughter

The story revolves around a little girl named after her grandmother. Narrated in the first person, the tale unfolds through the girl's vivid memories of her time with her grandmother, portraying their uniquely special bond. These recollections aren't overly sentimental or cliché but instead capture realistic, everyday moments that feel genuine to a child's perspective.

New Titles from the “Story Seekers Club” Series

Story Seekers Club celebrates the greatest explorers of stories we know — children. Every book is crafted by Bulgarian authors and illustrators, combining words and colors to create unique reading experiences. Layouts, fonts, and paper are carefully designed for early readers, helping them gain confidence in reading, understanding and exploring. Little by little, they become true “story seekers”.

Two years ago, we launched the Story Seekers Club — a series that turns the first pages children read into adventures, where each new book is a step toward confidence, curiosity, and a love for stories.

We are excited to announce three new books from the beloved Story Seekers Club series! Each title invites young readers to embark on adventures full of curiosity, laughter and discovery.

Three New Magical Adventures

In 2025 the Club welcomes three new magical adventures — each unique, enchanting and inspiring in its own way:

Emma's Monster

Story about emotions, courage, and choice.

The Zip Beetle and the Button Beetle

Story about learning to recognize true friends.

Girl or Bird (Book 2)

Sibling rivalry, adventures, and discovering the unexpected.

A Boy or a Guinea Pig (Book 1)

Author: Yulia Spiridonova
Illustrator: Miglena Papazova
Publication date: 2023

ISBN: 978-619-7241-67-9
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE EXCEPT RUSSIA

When Dodo is mistaken for a guinea pig and taken away, his sister Didi follows clues and faces villains to prove who he really is. A witty, fast-paced adventure about sibling bonds, courage, and finding your voice.

The Rascaloons

Author: Anna North
Illustrator: Yana Kazakova
Publication date: 2023

ISBN: 978-619-7241-51-8
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE
When socks vanish and chaos takes over, a young girl discovers the Rascaloons—tiny pranksters behind the mischief. Can she restore order, or will she learn to embrace the fun of a little chaos?

Mr Muse's Five Pieces of Advice

Author: Radostina Nikolova
Illustrator: Tsveta Petrova
Publication date: 2023

ISBN: 978-619-7241-53-2
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE
Sheri and Andy meet Mr. Muse, who teaches them five playful ways to rediscover inspiration. A warm story introducing children to mindfulness, grounding, and the joy of using their senses.

The Inventions of Chitter Chatter

Author: Petya Kokudeva
Illustrator: Ina Kyorova
Publication date: 2023

ISBN: 978-619-7241-54-9
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE
Betty stumbles into a magical workshop run by Bear Chitter Chatter, a genius inventor. Together they explore quirky creations that stretch weekends and measure dreams — a playful ode to imagination.

Misho in the Castle of King Remorseful

Author: Slavi Stoev
Illustrator: Boyan Yordanov — Bosilek
Publication date: 2023

ISBN: 978-619-7241-55-6
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE
Misho wants to rule the world and even dreams of being king. But his journey to the throne reveals that true power lies in kindness, change, and sharing — not control.

Emma's Monster

Written by Tsveta Brestnichka

Illustrated by Anna Tzocheva

Softback / 130 x 197 mm / 72 pages

Publication date: August 2025
ISBN: 978-619-7806-09-0
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Tsveta Brestnichka

Bulgarian writer, author of award-winning children's books, including the 2023 Konstantin Konstantinov and 2024 Biserche Valshebnio. She combines writing with travel and social engagement in parenting and education.

Anna Tzocheva

Illustrator, animator, and founder of Manga Academy, with over a decade of experience in comics and visual storytelling. Her works bring humor and depth, and she actively promotes comics culture in Bulgaria through teaching and exhibitions.

Helps with

Understanding and naming emotions

Kids learn to identify feelings in daily life.

Talking about bullying and empathy

Opens space for dialogue at home and in class.

Choosing kindness over revenge

Shows how compassion makes us stronger.

Ideal for

6–8 years old

Early readers.

Classroom discussions.

Family conversations about feelings.

Everyone carries a monster inside. What matters is how we choose to face it

After a terrible day at school, Emma discovers she has her very own monster. At first, it doesn't seem very scary, but it promises to grow stronger and stronger... and then everyone will see! Can a monster really solve your problems when you're angry, sad, or afraid? Or does it sometimes make things even harder?

In this thoughtful and engaging story, Emma learns that monsters feed on fear and anger—but they can shrink when met with honesty, empathy, and courage. A powerful tool for children, parents, and teachers to talk about bullying, difficult emotions, and the choices that make us stronger.

Early reader

Beetle with a zipper and Beetle with a button

Written by Ivan Radenkov

Illustrated by Katrin Eftimova

Softback / 130 x 197 mm / 64 pages

Publication date: August 2025
ISBN: 978-619-7806-07-6
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Ivan Radenkov

Bulgarian children's author and winner of the Konstantin Konstantinov Award. He writes original, humorous stories for children and actively participates in literary and community events, inspiring young readers.

Katrin Eftimova

Illustrator and graphic designer from Varna, now based in Vienna. Selected for the Bologna Children's Illustration Fair, she creates playful, colorful illustrations that bring stories to life for young readers.

Helps with

Understanding true friendship

Who values you for yourself, not your gifts.

Talking about envy and self-worth

How to stay kind when you feel used.

Growing through challenges

Mistakes can lead to strength and wisdom.

Ideal for

6–8 years old

Early readers.

Classroom talks about friendship and values.

What would you do if everyone wanted to be your friend... but only because of a magical gift?

"Am I your best friend?" What a wonderful and important question! But how can we tell true friendship from selfish interest? When Tinkleton the Beetle with zipper receives a magical gift, everyone wants to be his friend — but is that friendship genuine? Whether beetle-folk or children, everyone gets a little burned on the way to growing up worthy and kind.

This enchanting and witty story explores friendship, trust, and what it means to be valued for who you are, not for what you have. Through Tinkleton's "beetle blunders", children learn that kindness and honesty are what truly make friendships last.

A Girl or a Bird (Book 2)

Written by Yulia Spiridonova

Illustrated by Miglena Papazova

Softback / 130 x 197 mm / 112 pages

Publication date: August 2025
ISBN: 978-619-7806-08-3
WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Yulia Spiridonova

Writes children's and young adult books and has created over 400 scripts for Bulgarian National Television children's programs. She is the first Bulgarian nominated for the Astrid Lindgren Award. Her books Boy or Guinea Pig and Girl or a Bird inspire children with adventures and magical stories.

Miglena Papazova

Miglena Papazova is a freelance illustrator and graphic designer. Her illustrations bring warmth, curiosity, and joy, inspired by imagination, poetry, and the world around her.

Helps with

Understanding sibling rivalry and cooperation
Managing disagreements.

Observing nature and curiosity
Connecting with the world around you.

Solving mysteries and developing empathy
Thinking beyond oneself.

Ideal for

6–8 years old

Early readers.

Classroom talks about friendship and values.

Curiosity, and problem-solving.

Sibling Rivalry, Curiosity, and a Little Mystery

Twins Didi and Dodo still can't get along—they argue, tease, and sometimes even fight. When their parents suggest sports might make them “patient and tolerant,” they resist—but each finds an activity that suits them. One day, while watching birds, Didi spots their neighbor Mrs. Kradivrakova climbing a tree like a wild cat...

What's happening? And why? The new adventure continues from Boy or Guinea Pig, promising laughter, mischief, and sibling dynamics.

First in the series:

Boy or Guinea Pig introduces Didi and Dodo's world—full of playful disputes, curious explorations, and the humor of everyday life. It sets the stage for their new adventures and growing friendship.

Agatha. My First Year at School

Written by Alexandra Georgieva

Illustrated by Margarita Stamenova

Softback / 130 x 197 mm

Publication date: March 2023
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE EXCEPT FOR MAINLAND CHINA

Alexandra Georgieva

is a primary school teacher and author who inspires children through storytelling. She believes in the magic of words and the power of education.

Margarita Stamenova

is a Bulgarian illustrator known for her expressive black-and-white drawings in the Agatha series, bringing warmth and relatability to the stories.

Helps with

School transition anxiety

Shows children that school can be a positive and enriching experience, alleviating fear of the unknown.

Emotional intelligence

Presents a range of emotions and social situations, guiding children to understand and express their feelings.

Friendship and social skills

Highlights the importance of friendship, empathy, and cooperation in school settings.

Ideal for

4-8 years old

Young children, starting or preparing for their first school year.

Parents and educators seeking age-appropriate, realistic stories to help children adapt to school.

Readers interested in emotionally rich, educational children's literature with a focus on real-life experiences.

A realistic and educational series following a first grader's school journey

The series "Agatha. My First Year at School" by Alexandra Georgieva includes 13 books: 12 covering each month of the school year plus one additional book. Through Agatha's eyes, the stories present challenges, emotions, and events focusing on school life, courage, and friendship. The series also includes nature and science facts, helping to reduce fear and foster confidence in the first school year.

In Bulgaria, the Agatha series has sold over 40,000 copies.

На следващия
ден Агата беше твърдо решила да се изпробова в новото училище. Избраше найблизкото Загорско и Разградско, откъдето трябва да разминат децата от „Д“ клас, но да може найлесно да стигне до Партито. Партито от „Д“ клас беше Партито. Той тренирания показваха бегане с боса си и не беше никак лесно тренировка.

Партито
беше странно. Най-чуждото всичко на света. Агата се забавлява
странный. Въпреки че беше весело, но когато мислих за това, когато това, когато разбирах, беше най-малкото.
Никога, когато и когато до нея дори когато и когато от всички Агата, която и когато когато, но когато със
си дете и не когато. Ето, когато до когато с дъщеря, но когато с
когато си. Но и когато, с когато когато

Мама
и Тата са като възрастни, когато се изпробова на когато когато
когато когато.
— Тата когато когато ли е?
— Да, когато е! Обичам когато когато когато Мама когато когато по когато
когато когато.
— Уф, когато Агата да... когато не когато не когато когато когато!
Добре!
Агата когато когато по когато когато
когато си.

Early reader

A Cactus in a Flowerpot
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-16-7
 Agatha decides to gift her teacher a cactus in a flowerpot instead of a cut flower bouquet. The book emphasizes that a potted plant is much more ecological, durable, and overall a better choice than a cut flower wrapped in cellophane. It also introduces children gently to the new experiences of school life and the importance of caring for the environment.

A Little Bit of Courage
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-16-7
 Agatha learns how someone can overcome fears and doubts as they face the challenges of their first school year. Through observation and conversations, she discovers how resilience and confidence can grow over time.

What Chocolate Muffins Cannot Do
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-16-7
 Publication date: First published in 2020; 5th edition published in 2025
 Agatha encounters a new classmate who challenges her assumptions about friendship, showing that not all conflicts are easy but valuable lessons can be learned.

The Birthday Celebration
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-27-3
 Agatha's birthday celebration unveils lessons in patience and friendship when things don't go as planned, reflecting on handling disappointments positively.

When Words Become Magic
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-28-0
 Agatha learns how powerful words can be in shaping relationships and resolving conflicts, introducing children to the magic of communication.

Pine Cone Club
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-29-7
 Agatha and her friends form a club to share stories and adventures, promoting themes of community, listening, and inclusion.

Christmas Magic
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-120-4
 Agatha experiences the magic and traditions of Christmas, including a special Bulgarian ritual that brings both wonder and worry. This book combines festive spirit with family warmth during Agatha's first school year.

I Love You Grandma!
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-22-8
 Agatha learns about aging, illness, and healthcare as she worries for her grandmother. The story gently opens up conversations on difficult topics like sickness and caring for elderly family members.

What Is Love?
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-23-5
 Agatha discovers the many facets of love through her interactions with friends and family, broadening children's understanding of emotional connections.

Mischiefs and Good Deeds
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-26-6
 Agatha wonders if all mischief is bad. She believes it isn't, especially when someone cuts down her favorite tree unjustly. Through her experiences with classmates, she learns about standing up for what is right while balancing kindness and fun.

Mission: Clean Beach
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-32-7
 Set at the seaside, Agatha explores environmental responsibility, learning about pollution and the importance of caring for nature.

Summer in a Jar
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-28-0
 Agatha learns how powerful words can be in shaping relationships and resolving conflicts, introducing children to the magic of communication.

The Enchanted Garden
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-25-9
 Agatha and her classmates compete for the Gate of the Enchanted Garden at school. Though the gate remains locked, a special event promises to open it, hinting at hidden magic.

The Adventures of the Motts

Written by Radostina Nikolova

Illustrated by Margarita Stamenova

Softback / 140x 200 mm / 200+ pages

WORLD EXCEPT Ukraine and Finland
Over 50 000 copies sold in Bulgaria.
Winner of the "Magic Pearl Children's Choice Award" (2014).
Named "Most Read Series" by Sofia Library (2018).

Radostina Nikolova

is multi-award-winning author best known for The Adventures of the Motts, winner of the Biserche Valshebno Award

Margarita Stamenova

Special, newly redesigned edition, featuring vibrant illustrations by Margarita Stamenova, a concept artist specializing in animation and video games.

Helps with

Happiness and gratitude

Independent reading or shared moments with family.

Parents and educators

Seeking meaningful and entertaining stories that inspire and educate.

International readers

A universal message that transcends cultural boundaries.

Ideal for

6-10 years old

Independent reading.

Shared family moments.

Exploring humor, fantasy, and valuable life lessons.

A delightful series about happiness, friendship, and the magic of small moments

These fascinating creatures find plenty of adventures and brave quests that will change the world of children and adults forever. An unforgettable journey awaits, taking you on the wildest ride of your imagination. Get ready for a lot of fun, adventures, love, fights and emotions. Are you ready?

Explore earlier editions of the series, featuring Melina Elina-Bondokova's illustrations

Глава 7
РЕЧЕНО-СТОРЕНО

С тех дни рабът от Мукс бе първото дете, родено в новия свят. Точно в този момент, докато младата сестра със своето знамение отиде да плаче за сляпото си братче. Той себеси на умишлен път, за да избегне сирината, която му беше дадена, за да не се забележи, че е сиринче. Той се бе скрил в дървото, което му беше дадено, за да не се забележи, че е сиринче.

По онова време Мукс беше в митополния край на света и обикаляше в търсене на някоя отдалечена миста на стръпване по кълботините с дърво. Водил беше хората да не ги водят, защото това можеше да посочи на тайна. А убогостта на хората и мислите днес не са тайни. Той беше в дървото, но невидима сестра беше убогостта му.

Глас от своя страна беше в митополния край на града. Препоръа Паулу също да играе своите роли. Тя изидва с още няколко места твърдящи, че съществат всички се влиятелни парфюми от дъбовете на кората и да ги занесат при Гун и Муси. Да, мислел и препоръка, Паулу най-малко се съпротивил, все пак това била нейното познание и тя не било задължоване биде да ги носи.

Ето че утрешният час удари и отново в 20.00 ч. Бобо канеше дъщеря от синагогата у дома.

— Всички да си гурт! — позвала той едно от момичетата.

[illegible]

Other Exciting Adventures by Radostina Nikolova & Boyan Yordanov-Bosilek

The acclaimed author-illustrator duo invites readers to dive into two more playful and mysterious stories, full of humor, clever twists, and unforgettable characters. These books charm and captivate young readers in their own unique way.

Miss Wacky Jackie (Book one)

Written by Radostina Nikolova

Illustrated by Boyan Yordanov-Bosilek

Softback / 140 x 200 mm / 192 pages

Publication date: 2019 (new edition 2024)
ISBN: 978-619-7241-79-2
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Meet Lina and Niko, the mischievous twins, as they navigate the surprises of village life and encounter the quirky Shantaviya. Their adventures show that nothing is ever quite as it seems, blending humor, imagination, and playful chaos.

First published in 2019 with illustrations by Hristina Eftimova, this edition of Miss Wacky Jackie was recognized in the prestigious White Ravens catalogue by the International Youth Library in Munich.

Helps with

Imagination and creativity

Sparks inventive ideas and playful thinking.

Humor and problem-solving

Encourages laughter while figuring things out.

Friendship and curiosity

Highlights teamwork and exploring new ideas together.

Ideal for

8-12 years old

Young readers who enjoy humor, adventure, and whimsical mysteries.

Miss Wacky Jackie: Operation "Wing or Knob"

Written by Radostina Nikolova

Illustrated by Boyan Yordanov-Bosilek

Softback / 140 x 200 mm / 200 pages

Publication date: 2024
ISBN: 978-619-7241-80-8
WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

The twins face a new, puzzling adventure in the village of Gevrek. With strange newcomers, mysterious vehicles, and a flock of thousands of chickens, Lina and Niko must unravel secrets while navigating school, neighbors, and the endlessly mischievous Wacky. A story full of laughs, suspense, and clever surprises.

Helps with

Critical thinking and investigation
Supports reasoning and observation skills.

Teamwork and empathy

Shows the value of understanding others while working together.

Mystery-solving

Practices uncovering clues and making connections.

Ideal for

8-12 years old

Young readers who enjoy humor, adventure, and whimsical mysteries.

Rintie the Dragon series

Written by Donika Rizova

Illustrated by Mira Miroslavova

Softback / 230 x 160 mm

Helps with

Friendship and loyalty

Greg and Rinti stay together through every challenge.

Courage and decision-making

Shows kids how to be brave and take responsibility.

Problem-solving

Puzzles and mysteries train logical thinking.

Ideal for

8+ years old

Readers who love fantasy and adventure.

Kids fascinated by knights, dragons, and myths.

Fans of series.

Publication date: 2021
WORLD EXCEPT ITALY

About the Series

The adventures of Greg and his dragon friend Rinti take young readers from sunny Mallorca to medieval castles, pirate ships, and even to the Pope's court. Mixing real historical figures with fantasy and humor, the trilogy explores courage, friendship, and growing up while keeping readers on the edge of their seats.

Donika Rizova

Is a PR expert, journalist, and author with over 20 years of experience. She is known for her engaging children's books that combine storytelling and communication skills to inspire young readers.

Mira Miroslavova

Is a Bulgarian illustrator with extensive experience in children's books. Her detailed and vibrant illustrations enrich stories with a distinctive artistic voice.

Rintie the Dragon (Book 1)

Greg discovers a dragon on Mallorca and is swept into a magical adventure that connects the modern world with an ancient secret order. Their friendship is just beginning — and the fate of dragons might rest in their hands.

Rintie the Dragon and the Order of Kings (Book 2)

Greg and Rinti face knights, queens, pirates, and the Pope himself to protect the last dragon eggs. This story takes them deep into Bulgarian history, tests their courage, and challenges the strength of their friendship.

Rintie the Dragon and War of Orders (Book 3)

When the rivalry between the Order of Kings and the Order of Dragons erupts into full war, Greg and Rinti must solve ancient mysteries, make tough choices, and grow into true heroes — just in time for summer.

Don't Throw Me Away. A Tomato's Tale

Written by Bilyana Konstantinova

Illustrated by Anna Tzocheva

Hardback / Cardboard pages / Flaps / 14 pages

Publication date: June 2024
ISBN: 978-619-7241-75-1
WORLD EXCEPT TURKEY

Bilyana Konstantinova

Journalist, editor, and children's educator, passionate about food sustainability, responsible consumption, and inspiring young minds.

Anna Tzocheva

Artist, animator, and comic creator. She brought to life Bulgaria's first interactive lift-the-flap children's book, designing characters and flaps that make the story playful and engaging.

Helps with

Food sustainability

Teaches children how small actions can reduce waste and protect the environment.

Curiosity and discovery

Engages young readers with fun facts about tomatoes and their journey from farm to table.

Responsibility and awareness

Encourages mindful consumption and respect for food.

Ideal for

4-8 years old

Interactive learning.

Family reading time.

Early discussions on sustainability.

A fun and educational story that helps children understand food waste and the importance of caring for our planet

Very often, fruits and vegetables end up in the trash just because they've become "ugly." And the most discarded of all is the tomato. Learn its story and discover how you can save food from the trash and help care for a healthier and cleaner planet! With flaps and packed with many curious facts.

Stories from the Sunshine Street

Written by: Maria Yonova
Illustrated by: Marta Andreeva
Hardback / 145 x 215 mm

Helps with

Friendship and trust

Teaches children how to talk openly and make up after a misunderstanding.

Problem-solving

Shows that there is always a creative solution to challenges.

Empathy and kindness

Encourages kids to support others and show compassion.

Resilience

Proves that even if things go wrong, you can try again.

Ideal for

3–7 years old

Families looking for cozy bedtime stories.

Children who enjoy gentle, humorous tales about friendship.

About the Series

Welcome to Sunny Street — a cozy neighborhood where every day is filled with warmth, fun, and little adventures. Through the stories of Viola the bunny and Ukulele the mouse, young readers explore friendship, emotions, and the small but important lessons of growing up. Each book is themed around a season and invites children to slow down, notice the world around them, and share joy with the ones they love.

Maria Yonova

Grew up surrounded by books in her mother's library and has been in love with stories ever since. Inspired by her two children, she writes with warmth and humor, inviting young readers to laugh, reflect, and discover life's small wonders.

Marta Andreeva

Transforms Sunny Street into a colorful, lively world full of charming details. Her illustrations are playful, expressive, and perfectly tuned to capture the emotions of Viola, Ukulele, and their friends.

Book 1: Viola, Ukulele and the Sledge

When Viola is not invited to a friend's birthday party, she decides to crash it in the funniest way possible! A heartwarming winter story about misunderstandings, trust, and the joy of having true friends by your side — even when things go wrong.
ISBN: 978-619-7241-65-5

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Book 1: Viola and Ukulele Hurry for the Train

Ukulele is late for the train, and Viola offers him a lift on her bike — but nothing goes as planned! This springtime adventure shows that the best journeys are about the people you share them with, not just the destination.
ISBN: 978-619-7241-63-1

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Want to see more?

The Elephant Who Wanted to Fly

Author: Lilyana Dvoryanova
 Illustrator: Lilyana Dvoryanova
 Publication date: 2020
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-13-6
 WORLD EXCEPT HUNGARY

Waldo without Wings

Author: Radostina Nikolova
 Illustrator: Mateya Arkova
 Publication date: May 2018
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-08-2
 WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

My Beautiful Antlers

Author: Radostina Nikolova
 Illustrator: Melina-Elina Bondokova
 Publication date: 2016
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-04-4
 WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

A Story of Wonder

Author: Marin Troshanov
 Illustrator: Nikolay Mihaylov
 Publication date: 2022
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-46-4
 WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

The Adventures of Bluefoot and Buzz

Author: Maria Angelova
 Illustrator: Elena Vladinova
 Publication date: 2022
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-14-3
 WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE

Miracle at Christmas

Author: Ralitsa Merdjanova
 Illustrator: Yana Popova
 Publication date: 2022
 ISBN: 978-619-7241-47-1
 WORLD RIGHTS ARE AVAILABLE